Information Security Awareness-Internet Resources

Last updated: 06/2019

Section 1: The Data You Need to Protect

EXPORT CONTROL INFORMATION
The A&M System Research Security Office Export Control

IMAGE CREDITS
- “United States” by Monika Ciapala used under CC BY 3.0.
- “World” by Erin Standley used under CC BY 3.0.

Section 2: Protect Your Data

Office of Justice Programs. (n.d.). Public Wi-Fi Networks. Retrieved from OnGuardOnline.gov:

http://security.tamu.edu/protect_my_work/Protecting_Confidential_Information.php

PUBLIC INFORMATION
Individuals seeking public information shall submit a written request to the appropriate public information officer, http://www.tamus.edu/offices/legal/openrecords-officers.

Public information officers are required to promptly examine, approve, and release requested information. For more information, visit http://www.txdps.state.tx.us/pia.htm.

Section 3: Protect Your Accounts

https://msevensoftware.com/password-manager

COMMON PASSWORD VAULTS:
- KeyPass: http://keepass.info/
- LastPass: https://lastpass.com/
TWO-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION

- How to enroll for CAS, https://gateway.tamu.edu/duo-enroll/

Section 4: Protect Yourself

SOCIAL ENGINEERING

INSIDER THREATS

Section 5: Protect Your Devices

Other Resources

- TrainTraq Course 2111212: Export Controls & Embargo Training-Basic Course (online): https://apps6.system.tamus.edu/TrainTraq/web/CourseDetails.aspx?cnum=2111212